Fast Facts

Olympic Classes: Sailing will be conducted for all Olympic Classes (including 2.4mR) from January 15th – 20th, 2007.

Invited Classes: Sailing will be conducted for the 420, Laser 4.7 and 29er classes from January 16th – 20th, 2007 and for the OK dinghy and Tasar classes from January 18th – 20th, 2007.

Open for everyone: The event is open to sailors of all abilities in all listed classes – you do not have to be a World beater to race against World beaters!

Series of Regattas: Sail Melbourne is the high point of a coordinated series of regattas held in Australia and New Zealand so you can sail, train, race and have fun Down Under here from December – February.

Shipping Support: Sail Melbourne has arranged discounted shipping through regatta sponsors Schenker Australia making it very cost effective to get your boat here.

Accommodation: A range of low cost accommodation options are available including a popular billet program for sailors to stay with local families.

Logistical Assistance: Sail Melbourne will assist with logistical support ranging from coach boats to airport transfers.

Visit the Sail Melbourne website for the latest discounts and concessions.

In the beginning ... You come here to sail, sail, sail, enjoy the experience and have fun. And that's what we give you. Great race set-up, great water, great weather, great competition and great fun. If you're looking to test yourself against the world's best in January, this is where you'll find them. At Sail Melbourne (many getting up to speed for Beijing).

But it's not just one regatta. You can make Sail Melbourne the centrepiece of a whole southern Summer/Northern Winter AUS/NZL campaign. Plan it so you can tie in with a coordinated program of events in the region. Easy!

OK. That's up at the pointy end of the fleet. But it's not the whole fleet. If you're a club sailor wanting to go faster, there's a great welcome and some great experience waiting for you in Melbourne.

And then ... The racing's over. Time for a little R&R before you head home. You can hit the beach, you can hit the attractions. And you can hit Melbourne. As you'll see for yourself, this is one town that loves a party.
